Advertisements from the Delegates of Convocation for his Majesties Reception, for the Heads of Houses to deliver with great charge unto their Companies.

1 THat they admoniſh all ſuch as are under their charge, that they appear no where abroad, during the Kings abode in the Univerſity, without their Caps and Gownes ſuitable to their Degree and Condition; and that their Hair, and Apparell be ſuch as the Statutes preſcribe.

2 That no Schollar of what Condition ſoever ſhall preſume to goe out to meet the King, either on Foot, or on Horſ-back; or to be at, or upon the way, where the King is to come; but ſhall attend in that Place, and Poſture, wherein he ſhall be required to be upon notice from his Superiours.

3. That no Schollar come into the Preſence, or neer any of the Kings Offices, as His Kitchin, Buttery, or any places about the Court, eſpecially about Meal-times.

4. That on Wedneſday in the Afternoon, at the Ringing of S^t^ Maries great Bell, all Perſons, Graduats, and others, (that doe not ride out with Mr. Vice-Chancellour) forthwith repair to the Schooles Quadrangle, thence to goe in Order to the Street above Chriſt Church Weſt-Gate, there to ſtand in Rank, One by One, on each ſide of the Street as farre as Bocardo: The Noble men and Doctors ſtanding next to the Gate, and ſo the reſt according to their Quality and Degree; and there to remain quietly, till his Majeſty, and His Train be paſſed; and then every man immediately to depart to his Colledge or Hall.

5. That the ſame Order be obſerved, Mutatis mutandis, at what time his Majeſty ſhall be pleaſed to viſit the Library; all being required to meet, in order thereunto in Oriel Colledge Quadrangle, to receive Directions from Mr. Vice-Chancellor, and thoſe that have Procuratoriall power, who ſhall place them in convenient ſtations from the Schooles South-Gate, to Chriſt Church Eaſt-Gate. the Seniours ſtill ſtanding next the Schooles. And as ſoon as his Majeſty and his Train ſhall have enter'd the Schooles, every one is required to depart to his own Colledge or Hall, to be in readineſſe to attend upon his Majeſty, if He ſhall be pleaſed to viſit any of the Colledges.

If any ſhall offend againſt any of theſe Orders, he ſhall (beſide the ordinary puniſhment of the Statutes to be inflicted upon him) be enter'd alſo into the Black-book, and ſo kept back from his Degree. And all Maſters that are entruſted with the Procuratoriall power, are required Virtute juramenti to ſee theſe Orders Executed and punctually obſerved.

The Names of the Maſters of Arts that have a Procuratoriall Power committed to them during his Majeſties abode in the Univerſity.
